“We are not a political party nor are we a religious cult; we are a group of living beings, flesh and blood, spiritually united in heart and soul. We stand as strong individuals yet built together under a common, natural law, which is shared by all, owned by none and which is superior to any statute. We each have a personal commitment, divinely inspired, to do no harm, to cause no loss to others, to commit no fraud and to keep the peace.”

Sovereign Natural Empowerment

Here ‘Karen-Ruth’ describes her journey from illegal corporate entrapment into liberty under a natural, divine, common law

“It was a health issue in 2018 which made me take a closer look at the medical profession and what I now know as ‘Big Pharma’. I discovered new voices such as Judy Mikovits, Sherri Tenpenny, Ty and Charlene Bollinger, Del Bigtree, Robert F Kennedy Jr, and Catherine Austin Fitts. They opened up for me a parallel world to the one I was living in, and it didn’t take long to realise, things were not as they seemed. The medical world was less of a caring profession, and more of a money-making industry.

And that was just the start of it. It became crystal clear that the world is being organised and controlled by a very few, an unelected oligarchy, who seem to have their tentacles into everything. A tiny number of people, with extreme private wealth, appeared to own or control almost everything on the planet that we need to survive: the world's food, water, agriculture, health, media, education, retail, banking; and, by controlling these industries, they also have gained control over the governments of the world.

The world as I knew it, all the 'facts' and 'figures', information, our courts, our justice and security, war and peace - are all an illusion. All cunningly facilitated by our banking system, and everything backed up by the legal system.

Almost all of us, appear to have unwittingly handed over responsibility for all things necessary to exist and survive to others: our food, water, health, nutrition, education, protection, even our judgement. All of this now being provided almost exclusively by others. And when we can't provide for ourselves or our family, we have become very easy to control - by these our providers.

Things had to change, but what could I do?

Then, along came 'Covid'. A war being waged upon us - silently, by stealth. I started hearing about sovereignty and the common law of the land. Now, I'd been to law school, so I know what's gets taught there, and more importantly, i know what isn't taught. We'd been taught about common law, that it was case law, based on judge-made precedents. What I was hearing about now, the common law of the land, wasn't anything to do with what we'd been fed as fact at law school.

I tried to find out more, and eventually I began to realise that this common law, the common law of the land that I was now discovering, is real law, natural law, which has been completely usurped by the legal system. This law, real law, is not taught at law school, and it became clear that the confusion was created on purpose, obfuscation by design.

This confusion is present in every part of the system. It runs through lawyers, judges, academics, magistrates, barristers, court clerks, and more. And it's difficult to hear, after you've invested so much of your life in study, that your chosen profession is little more than a gigantic money making industry designed to control people by trickery, deception and fraud.

This applies equally to our medical profession, and to the education system too.

I joined the Guardians 300 and became a trainer with them. I'm in awe at the depth of knowledge of the people I learnt from there. In awe of how they've patiently waited for decades for the rest of us to catch up. But catch up we must, and this knowledge needs to be shared. I now work independently yet in collaboration with EbMCsquared to spread this simple but powerful message far and wide.

We all learning now what we should have been taught as young people. That we are sovereign, we are free-born living individuals, and that the rules are simple, not complicated. We don't need to hire any expensive lawyer to represent us, we don't need a corporate police 'force' to stamp government policy into us. We can manage ourselves, and the rules are clear: we cause no harm, no loss, no injury to anyone, and we know that our rights persist where legalism fails. That's it. When we stick to these rules, we can do no wrong, and everything that is not a wrong is our right. We are more than capable of judging whenever someone is wrong. We don't need a legal society and literally millions of pieces of government rules, regulations and legislation for that.

Nor do we need a multi-billion dollar human rights industry to ensure our rights. Its very existence would like to infer that 'right's can be given and taken away. We are born with our rights, no one gives them to us, and no one can take them away.

Everyone is equal under common law, and no one is above the common law.

To take away another's natural unalienable rights would be to put someone under man-made statute. No one else can own or have your rights, they are yours. So, how could anyone replace those rights with something man-made and try to tell you they have the authority to do so? It is a false flag industry, creating fear and control under the guise of welfare and protection. Unless you've broken the law, (the real law, not an act of statute), you remain truly free: only a slave could have rights given or taken away. So, are we slaves or are we free?

To be free is to be sovereign. Therefore, we are responsible for ourselves, to provide for ourselves and our family - and we can do this with the free help of others, but not by the control of tyrants. We keep any government in its place; it exists as an administrator of the realm and nothing more.

We create government to serve the people, and they are there to work for us. We control government, it is not the other way around. They govern only with our consent, and anything they do or say should happen with our express agreement. Without our agreement, their self-described 'laws' are merely acts of law and have no force. The present government is a corporation, and their decisions are no more than corporate policy, with no bearing on us whatsoever unless we give our genuine consent.

Let me help you find your way to sovereignty, then you can help others find theirs. This site ** contains an online course, with tools, and a blog to help you on your sovereign way."

I hope you enjoy the wonderful experience of discovering your sovereignty and that you come to live exactly as you were intended to be, finding your power, standing your ground, and then sharing your sovereign knowledge with others.

With grateful thanks to 'Karen-Ruth' for opening this way towards the true, natural liberty of a common law life
